

From the Horse's Mouth

A Newsletter for The Supporting Riders of the Light Cavalry HAC

Change of Editor

After a long hiatus, The Horse's Mouth is finally being resurrected. Following a busy period for those at Flemish Farm, and indeed for The Light Cavalry, a fuller edition will follow shortly which will include reports on a number of recent (and not so recent!) events, including:

- The General's Inspection
- Lord Mayor's Parade
- The Christmas Show
- John Palmer Competition
- Royal Cornwall Show

A great debt of thanks is owed to side-saddle heroine Kate Robinson for her editorship of The Horse's Mouth with such diligent (and indeed prompt!) enthusiasm, despite all her commitments of work, organising the Ladies Side Saddle evenings and assisting in the various Light Cavalry Parades throughout the calendar. The new Editor is supporting rider Ashish Singh - all contributions are welcome and should be communicated to him directly (see below for contact details).

"When I bestride him, I soar, I am a hawk: he trots the air; the earth sings when he touches it; the basest horn of his hoof is more musical than the pipe of Hermes."

- William Shakespeare (Henry V, Act 3, Scene 7)

Ladies' Night Dinner

The Light Cavalry Annual Ladies' Night Dinner will be held this year on 27 July and as usual will be at Armoury House in the Long Room and promises to be a memorable event.

Official guests are Baroness Fookes DBE (President of the War Widows Association of Great Britain) and Lt. General Sir Philip Trousdell KBE CB (former Commandant RMA Sandhurst).

An application form is enclosed over leaf. For those who require parking facilities at Armoury House, kindly include car registration details with the returned application, as these details will need to be provided to the gate security.

The Light Cavalry values its Supporting Riders and hopes that as many of you as possible will attend and support us on this occasion and make this Dinner another success.
